As we pulled into the ^{Crowded} parking lot the Petco sign appeared before my eyes. I was speechless, I was getting a fish! I screamed so loud I popped my own eardrums. I was so happy because this was the first pet I've ever had in my life. I could tell my brother, Kevin, and my mom were excited too.

As we walked in I looked at all the fish. Then I saw the perfect ones for me the slow fish. The manager said that the color would wear off, so I wasn't very sure. Then I made up my mind. I would get a slow fish.

When we got into the car the purple one was freaking out because there was no place to hide, so I decided to name it Shy. We decided to get all four of the fish. I will never forget the day I showed my fish their new happy home.

Nice ending!
